

Jill Rose, NCIDQ

President, Account Development and Sales

Jill Rose has operated in many roles since joining Rowland Design in 2005 including Interior Designer, Project Manager, and Business Development leader. She now serves as our company's President, leading the firm into our next 50 years.

Jill is actively involved in the Indianapolis community. She is the past President of IndyCREW (Commercial Real Estate Women) and a board member of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Indiana where she serves on their Board of Governance and Facilities Committees. Recently she was appointed to the Board of Directors for the Indy Chamber and the Indianapolis Progress Committee.