FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ROWLAND DESIGN ANNOUNCES NEW PRESIDENT

INDIANAPOLIS, Indiana – Rowland Design is pleased to announce that Jill Rose has been promoted to President. Rose has operated in many roles since joining Rowland Design in 2005 including Interior Designer, Project Manager, and Business Development leader.

Rose replaces Sarah Schwartzkopf who has been serving as the firm's President since 2008. "I am thrilled to pass the baton to my very capable friend and colleague. Jill is a remarkable person. Rowland Design is in very good hands, and I am thrilled to see where she leads us as we enter our next 50 years!"

Schwartzkopf will remain at the company as Principal and Interior Designer.

Founder Sallie Rowland commented "I am so enthused that Jill is taking this position as she is so well respected by clients and staff and is capable of managing and running a successful business with an eye on the future."

Jill Rose is also a leader in the Indianapolis community serving as the 2019 President of Indy's Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) and is a Board of Directors member for the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Indiana.

Founded in 1968, Rowland Design is an integrated studio of talented architects, interior designers, and graphic designers.
