

Sarah Schwartzkopf, RID

Principal, Designer

Cultivating creative design that is unique and personable is one of Sarah's main motivators. Her design portfolio is quite diverse and includes corporate office, hospitality, residential, and Greek housing projects. Some of her significant corporate office projects include the headquarters for MacAllister Machinery, the Girls Scouts of Central Indiana, and Big Brother Big Sisters of Central Indiana.

Sarah gives of her time and creative talents by participating as a board member on the local house corporation at Kappa Kappa Gamma Indiana University Bloomington.
